“ *Me sweet Grammy. The one constant in my life. She kept my heart close to Jesus. She was an incredible woman. My whole childhood is intertwined with memories of her and Grandy. She made my childhood. Spending summers on the farm, fighting off Japanese beetles in her rose garden, learning how to cook. I loved watching her get ready for church, she was so beautiful and always put together, her makeup and pretty clothes and jewelry, probably where I get my love of jewelry lol. She was a woman of God, a pillar in our family, she kept our relationship with Jesus strong and I know she received the biggest welcome into Heaven ever. She will forever be missed.
Love you Grammy!*

“ The soothing effect of remembering the experiences I had with Grammy (and Grandy) rivet my entire past together. She was a constant for me. She was just the same when I spilled my cereal bowl on the floor when I was five as she was when I crashed her riding lawn mower when I was 13. Matter-of-fact, kind.... and funny. She was Grammy. Between the road trips my sisters and I have taken with her, the projects we would take on together and the FOOD SHE WOULD MAKE..... the nostalgia is overwhelming. It always has been. My favorite memory of her is from 1993. I was in third grade. Her super long gravel driveway was being washed away in a monsoon. We went out to the shed and got 2 shovels and 2 ponchos. Together we dug out that ditch from the top of the hill to the bottom, 550 feet. I was so impressed by her. She wouldn't let us stop. I found a whole petrified turtle when we got to the bottom. She was the best. I just want to hear her laugh one more time. I'm so happy for her now. She is with Jesus forever. That's really all she ever wanted.

“ As a young lost man searching for answers, I first met Mary Ann and Eddie in the late 70's. I immediately encountered 2 individuals full of the love for God and people. It definitely made an impression. Several years later, the Lord found me and rescued me and I found myself at their house at a huge bible study. They were (and still are) amazing!

Little did I know that several years later that they would open up their home in Dallas to myself and Gary D. as we looked for a place to live and work. They were so wonderful and hospitable to us! I am really looking forward to seeing them again!

“ My mom a precious heart and loving soul. She lived well and brought nothing but honor to our family. We can all do well to follow her example. I had The Lord's Prayer memorized by age 3 and she never let us miss one Sunday school class. The lives she touched are far reaching. We will carry her in our hearts forever and know that we will, one day, see her again. Love you Mom. #3

Ms Mary Ann worked as a substitute teacher with me at the Christian Day Care Center /First Presbyterian Church , for I don't remember how long. She truly loved the Lord and it radiated in her life-in her actions and dealing with the children. I will always remember her sweet smile and her easy pace and most especially her wanting others to know about Jesus. I know she is with our Lord today. Margaret Chester
