“ I did not personally know Michael. I just happened to read the case online and googled name and got here. Despite that this was senseless violence that ended with a senseless tragedy which has left a family broken and in unimaginable pain. I cannot imagine how your family feels at the moment, and despite the lack of a personal connection i still have a human connection which hurts for you and Michael. I hope i am not out of line for posting to your personal family page but my heart just felt the need to, I hope it is accepted. I do not know the details of what happened but regardless it doesn't matter, the outcome is still the same. A life is lost do to senseless violence and a family is left to grieve. For none other than an avoidable conflict. I myself am a former blood gang member and drug dealer so i know this story all to well. Once again I'm sorry for the intrusion and if for any reason anyone feels i am out of line i will unreluctantly remove this post. Otherwise I hope it offers even the least bit of comfort just to know a complete stranger was affected by Micheals senseless and untimely passing. My prayers are with all the family at this time and even for the suspected as i hope God may forgive him and soften his heart. For there are many things God has chosen for us not to understand. Unfortunetly....this is one of them. Just know for there is no burden put upon us in which we cannot bear. Rest in paradise young brother. Amen

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with the family during this difficult time. I remember him in school and he was always smiling.

So also you have sorrow now, but I will see you again, and your hearts will rejoice, and no one will take your joy from you. John 16:22
