“ I've know Mike for over twenty years and had the pleasure of finally meeting at the SE shoot!! We stayed in contact on Facebook and he assisted me many times with gunsmithing projects!! I will miss his knowledge and intellegence!
One of my fondest memories is when he let me shoot his ,50 CAL BMG rifle, just once, but that was enough!!
RIP my friend!!

“ You were my friend.

A man doesn't get to have many true friends in his life, and you were one of mine. My life was richer because you were in it, and is diminished because you're gone.

Rest in peace Mike, until we meet again.

“ Mike,

You were one of the best friends "I never actually met". Your vast knowledge about practically anything and unbridled humor brightened many of my days. Your courage while facing the darkest of yours is something I could only hope to emulate.

Prayers for you and your family.

God Speed, Sailor!

I regret never meeting you in person but I always read what you had to say and thank you for making me laugh over the years, thanks Mike, I KNOW your feeling good in your new home.

I knew him as "Tennmike" from a firearms forum we both were on. He was a font of knowledge about many things - I learned a lot from him! He was kind enough to pick up an old sewing machine for me once and bring it to a shooting event we both attended.

I'm not much on "Rest In Peace", so I'll just say "Dance In Joy", and Goddess Bless. Catch you on the flip side...

A good friend who I never met and, with much regret, never bought that pint of warm British bitter I promised him.

Go gently into the good night Mike.

Like others, I got to know Mike in the old G&A Forum, and we became good friends. I miss his wit, his wisdom, and his counsel terribly. I look forward to seeing him someday in the Great Hall.
