“ I have so many memories of Milburn but two that stand out the most "his smile and love of chewing tobacco". We pray that God gives his family strength and courage in the tough days to follow. Milburn may you sit back, take chew and rest in Peace until we meet again.

“ Mildred, praying for you and family. You and your family are life-long friends.
My mom and dad lived next to Mary and Ben years ago. Mom tells of a time when Milburn was small and came over and saw a homemade chocolate cake on the table. Milburn was apparently told not to ask for anything said, "is that a chocolate shoe"?
