

Mildred Swicegood Harvey

July 18, 1922 - January 9, 2015

Mildred Swicegood Harvey, 92, of Harriman, went home to be with her Savior, Friday, January 9, 2015, at Harriman Care & Rehab after a lengthy illness.

She was an active member of Walnut Hill Baptist Church, Harriman, until her health began to fail her. She was a special person who loved people and was loved in return by all. Her church was the biggest joy of her life and taking care of children of working mothers came next. She did this for many years and loved each child dearly. Just like any Mother, she loved her family. She had an extended family, but loved each one and each one loved her.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Will & Mae Swicegood; her husband, Robert Harvey, Sr.; two sisters, Bernice Watson and Iva Rhea; two brothers, Ray and Carl Swicegood; a step-son, Robert Harvey, Jr.; step-grandson, Dewayne Harvey; and a very special niece, Pat Pelfrey.

She is survived by her sister, Jean Hamby of Knoxville; children, Christine Harvey, Allen Bollon, Dennis Collett (Sandra), Shelia Whittenbarger (Bill), and step-son, Mickey Harvey (Pam) all of Harriman; granddaughters, Joy Wolfe of Oak Ridge, Donna Hall (Rusty), Ashley Miller (TJ), and Michelle Whittenbarger all of Harriman; great grandsons, Alex Hall and Cody Barnard, and one great-great grandson, Rylan Hall; a step-granddaughter, several step-great grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

The family will receive friends on Monday, January 12, 5-7 p.m., at the Kyker Funeral Home Chapel in Harriman; funeral services will immediately follow with Dr. Billy Edmonds, Sr. officiating. Interment will be Tuesday, January 13, 11 a.m., in Roane Memorial Gardens.
