“ So sad to hear of Ms Pankey's passing. I met her at Silvertree in Schertz while my mom was rehabbing there. Such a joy and blessing she was to me. I will cherish her memory forever and she will be dearly missed.

“ Myrtle took such good care of our family for years when I was young. She was such a blessing for us. I am so thankful for the memories of her in our home and the many times I would see her downtown on her walks and the conversations we had. I am so sorry for your loss.
