“ She was the most caring, loving, woman. .I believe mamaw and papaw were the most two "in love "people i've ever seen in my life. My only regret is that my daughters didn't get to know her better. She will always be remembered for those cathead biscuits she made and that high lonesome voice she sang with in church. Mamaw, I love you, but I know you are with papaw and that makes me very happy.

“ I will always remember what a sweet spirit your mother had. Her voice was so faint and soft, but when I leaned in to listen to her, she always had such nice things to say. It was clear she loved the Lord and she loved her family. I know you will miss her. It doesn't matter how ready someone was to go, it still is a loss. And she was such a sweet lady. When I heard she had passed away, I called Maureen Adcock who is our prayer chair in Cheerful Helpers. She calls all the care groups. She was saddened by the news, also, and remembered Frances working at the hospital. That's one more way Frances showed her care for others. I regret she wasn't able to attend the class since I started teaching it, but I know she was loved and known even better by those in the class.
