

Nadja Lee

July 1, 1943 - March 4, 2007

Nadja Lee, age 63, of Sweetwater, TN, passed away on Sunday March 4, 2007, at the University of Tennessee Medical Center, Knoxville. She was a wonderful wife, mother, and grandmother. Before moving to Tennessee in 1985, she lived in Lakewood, New Jersey. She was a longtime employee of Proffit's in Athens, TN and most recently the Lilly Pad Boutique in Sweetwater. She never met a stranger and had a contagious wit and true gift in connecting with others. She touched many people's hearts throughout her life. Preceded in death by her mother: Vera, father: John, brother: Alexander, sister: Helen. Survivors include: Husband: Edward Lee Jr. of Sweetwater Son and Daughter-in-law: Richard and Debbie Simsen of Whiting, N.J. Daughter and Son-in-law: Karen and David Collins of Knoxville Stepdaughter and Son-in-law: Jennifer and John Paxton of Knoxville Stepson: Edward Lee III. of Sweetwater She will be greatly missed by her beloved grandchildren: Vera and Grace Aldridge, and Alexander Simsen Special gratitude is extended to her amazing doctors- and their staffs- who took wonderful care of her for seven years- Dr. Kevin Martinolich, Dr. Wahid Hanna, Dr. Jeffrey Hirsh. A celebration of life service will be conducted on Thursday March 8, 2007 at 6:30P.M., visitation with the family will be from 5:30P.M. until 6:30P.M. at The First Presbyterian Church with Rev. Ted Baker officiating. In lieu of flowers, memorials can be made in her name to the UT Cancer Institute's Patient Care Fund: 1924 Alcoa Highway, Knoxville, TN, 37920-6969. Kyker Funeral Home, Sweetwater in charge of arrangements. www.kykerfuneralhome.com