“ I met Nancy at a morning bible study at Auburn United Methodist Church in Auburn, Alabama long before I had the pleasure of meeting, knowing and loving her 3 wonderful boys, Tony, Alex and Andrew. She loved and adored her 3 boys - they were the light of her life. She would beam from ear to ear at the mention of their name. My son Taylor loved Nancy and has many fond memories - especially her welcoming spirit and her gift of hospitality. I know her boys will miss her, as so will Harold and the many people that loved and supported her. I pray her family will be comforted that she is at rest and at peace in the arms of her heavenly Father.
