“ My Aunt Parthie lived a good long life - 102. She was always a blessing to our family. She taught me to fry an egg when I had to stand in a chair to make it. (No short jokes please. Ha!) She taught me to play jacks and made some clothes for me when I was a little girl. She loved to make pies (chocolate, lemon and butterscotch). They were all delicious. Her Apple Stack Cakes and Date Nut Bread at Christmas were the best! Life got hard for her the last few years. She lost her sight and couldn't hear very well. She also couldn't swallow very well and lost so much weight. One thing she never lost was telling us she loved us when we would visit. I would say, "I love you Aunt Parthie" and she would "and I love you". I'll miss her but she is in her heavenly home with all of her 13 brothers and sisters, her husband and 2 of her children. What a reunion! Can't be sad for her but I sure will miss her. Love you Aunt Parthie! ❤️
