“ I have come to the conclusion that I am lost without my mother. She was my light in darkness and my rock when I was weak. She was my best friend and I will never be able to replace what we had. She was a silly, free spirited, kind hearted soul who loved all and hated none. Never turning her back on those, even strangers, who needed help. She radiated beauty, and though she was incredibly full of wisdom and knowledge, her smile and face remained unaged by life or time itself. Those who knew her loved her because she could make anyone laugh or smile. She was able to aid bruises and broken hearts. She was a mother to all who needed her to be. We will all miss her dearly. Until I see you again, mom, I love you and I know you're protecting as you always have.
