“ I say to all of you there today to say not goodbye, but Farewell. It is with a very heavy heart that we ALL sadly give a heartfelt send off to my cousin Patricia Redmond-Crabtree. But if I could only relieve your grief for one moment, I would hope to induce into your heart a small hope of rejoice that She is now with her parents and long gone family, whom she dearly missed. She had a wonderful spirit that I must admit, I fell in love with from the moment I met her. To me....She showed me the ways of my long lost kin and opened doors & a world of imagination, that only she could tell of. She made ALIVE our long lost relatives and made them more than just names & dates. They as She, Became OUR FAMILY.

Her life was full of family, friends, church and MANY community organizations. So many times, we overlook those kind neighbors who quietly help our community without recognition. Miss Patti was certainly one of those people.

She helped keep your community & your history ALIVE ! If you don't know your past, how can you kern your future? Those of you who have lived in this community all your lives, I admire you ! So many these days live far from their kin. Keep your family close and their memories ALIVE ! As that is what keeps someone as special as Miss Patti alive forever in our hearts and memories and very soul. God Bless Miss Patti !

*Sincerely and with love,
Cousin Joyce
