Polly,

I am so sorry. Please know that I am praying for you and the family. So many condolences being offered on Facebook. Just wanted to pass on a couple of them.

The following has helped me through the passing of friends and relatives. I pray that it might give you some comfort:

Native American Prayer

Author: Unknown

I give you this one thought to keep

I am with you still - I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow,

I am the diamond glints on snow,

I am the sunlight on ripened grain,

I am the gentle autumn rain.

When you awaken in the morning's hush,

I am the swift uplifting rush, of quiet birds in circled flight.

I am the soft stars that shine at night.

Do not think of me as gone -

I am with you still in each new dawn

Love you, lady,

Janice

“ Polly and family,

I am so sorry to hear about Patrick. Losing a child is a pain I cannot even imagine. I remember when Patrick was born, we (your guard family) were all so excited. Even though I have not seen him in several years, I will always remember him as a kind and loving child with a big smile. It is the love and support of your family and friends that will help you through this most horrific time. Just know that we love you, we are here for you, and that Patrick will not be forgotten as he will always be in our hearts. My God keep you near and give you the strength and courage to face this most difficult time.

Love you,

Lisa Jo

“ So sorry to learn about Patrick's death. I remember so well when he was born. Randy and Polly along with Casey were all so happy. I remember all the help Polly received from her friends as what to name him. He will be missed by many, but he leaves his daughter (Allyson) to carry on for him in life. May God Bless the family members at this time.
