“ I will always remember Phil as a kind and compassionate person. In the few years that I worked with him at the lab while I was a young system administrator , he patiently guided me in cyber policy but had that human touch, not just a technical guy but a kind wise source of guidance. You will be greatly missed. Hope we meet again in Heaven. God bless you brother.

“ Janice, Debbie and family, Phil was just an all around great guy. Kind. He and his band played for us at our last reunion (class of 73). They did a great job. It was so good to see him. I have a memory to share. I was waiting in a shoe department once to get waited on. I waited. The clerk kept going past me. I sat there quietly not wanting to speak up. Phil was there with Janice. He saw I was getting passed over for other customers. He motioned for me to say something but I was pretty timid. After a while, I guess he couldn't accept the clerk ignoring me so he spoke up. He kindly told the guy he had waited on several people before me and that I had been there before the others. I got waited on. I guess you could also say he was chivalrous, too. He was always nice when we were in school but I never forgot him speaking for me that day I was being overlooked. It might be a small thing to some but to me it meant a lot. I will keep you all in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Janice & Michael:

So sorry for your loss of Phil. This is a real loss to everyone who knew him here in this life on earth. He was a good man and loved the Lord. I thoroughly enjoyed working with him in the Cyber realm. He spoke about you and Michael all the time and how proud he was of both of you. When I think of Phil now, I can see Phil playing in the Heavenly band already or working with the Lord's sound system! Big Smile! There will be a grand reunion one day soon! Prayers for peace!
