“ Dear Mama,
I am thankful for our special bond - having the same birthday. I like telling people I was born on your 22nd. birthday. I am glad we moved back to TN when we did, and that you had a good day with us on Father's Day. I am thankful you told me "I love you" a few weeks before the cancer diagnosis. I am sorry you had to suffer like you did. I want you to know you did your best, and I think that's pretty good. I miss your "What cha' doin'?" when you call. I know we will see you and Mamaw and Papaw soon.
Love,
Your first born,
Kenneth
