“ My family is forever indebted to the Chapman Campbell family. Priscilla influenced my decision to become a CPA become a certified public accountant and chipped in financially on the bill for me. She waited until I was licensed before retiring from the Shelby County District Attorney General’s Office in June 2015. In January 2015, Priscilla Chapman Campbell signed my application and approved granting me access into the certified public accountant profession. Dana, Steven Jr. and Dorian dearly love Priscilla Chapman Campbell. We are saddened to hear the news of her passing. She has done a great work in the African American community! Because of her contributions, my children are on the road to becoming African American medical doctors! We thank God for the life and legacy of Priscilla Chapman Campbell. ❤️
