“ I miss you so much daddy. I cry remembering all our good memories together. I hope your not in pain anymore. I wrote a poem about you I wish you could read it but, maybe you can read it when I get heaven. And me and you can go to Heaven Daddy and Daughter dance together.

Love and miss you so much,
You daughter,

“ Little Samantha,
Our hearts break for you at this time. Just know that your Daddy loved you very much. It showed everytime we saw you two together. You were his whole world. Please carry that with you and know that, without a doubt. We will be praying that God carries you through this and gives you peace. Even in these times of sorrow, just remember...God is good.

“ We are so sorry about Randy. He kept me laughing every morning when we used to ride together to the highway department. We were in Maryville and couldn't get back in time for funeral. He will always be remembered as a special friend.

“ The world lost a great man this morning. Randy has always been a wonderful person. He always had the best laugh. We had a lot of good times together. Randy always "had my back" if I needed anything.

My heart breaks for Samantha, Dorothy and Mike. May God wrap his loving arms around all of you.
