“ Condolences from the family of her husband Jack Day. We received word of Anne's passing when at the funeral of her sister-in-law, Mary Lou Day Goss on June 14th. Anne married into the family in 1971, so we didn't have the childhood memories, since most of us-nieces and nephews were grown. Anne is remembered as being a sweet and gentle aunt. She and Jack shared a love and companionship that was a good life into their final years. Farewell, Aunt Anne

“ Words cannot do justice to the loss I feel. I'm sure my parents didn't realize when they made me Aunt Rasby's namesake what a profound influence that would be in my life. My mind is flooded with all of the conversations, all of the inspiration, and all of the laughter we shared. I didn't get to see her often, but she was never out of my mind. The last time we were together, we stayed up late into the night several times just talking and laughing, and she paid me the highest compliment she could have ever given me. She told me I was a lot like her. I couldn't ask to be anything grander. I will miss her terribly since just knowing she was there for me made all the difference in the world, especially after Mom died.

God Bless You All. Aunt Rasby was such a gem of a human being. How lucky we all were to have her this long.

“ Ann was a great quilter. She could choose the prettiest color of fabrics to make quilts. I was so blessed that she allowed me to be her quilter. I loved her and will her as many others will. I pray for comfort for her family.
