“ Everytime I think of Raymond I think of Naomi and I doing our best at plumbing. I will never forget the look on his face when water went everywhere. We couldn't stop laughing. In life we keep memories forever and this is one that I will absolutely never forget. I have such wonderful memories at their home. He always made me feel like I belonged there. Raymond thank you for being the parent that embraced the craziness of all us girls. You are definitely one of a kind., ❤️ You will be missed by all that knew you. ❤️ My heartfelt condolences to all the family. I love you guys.

Dearest Debbie, Charlotte, and Robin. I spent the night and once an entire week at Raymond and Naomi's home. All the daughters were small and a handful at this time. I felt so loved by both Aunt Naomi and Uncle Raymond. Your mother and father loved their family so much. May God grant you peace and joy in your memories. Uncle Raymond worked very hard all his life to provide for his girls. They even took me on a date before they married. I was only seven but I still recall how much they loved each other. Please remember that God will comfort you. Our sympathy in the loss of a devoted father. Your cousins in Alabama, Linda and Andy Marion

I have good memories of Uncle Raymond. He had a big heart and a warm smile to match it. He was always willing to lend a helping hand to anyone who needed it. May he rest in peace and rise in glory. You are all held in my prayers at this time.
