“ Pleasant Hill Methodist was well represented by Joanne always caring, always listening, and showing a spirit of insight and understanding. I first met her around 1993 as she served as the church pianist. She welcomed me as a regular to play for a Christmas carol sing almost every year since then. Joanne will be cherished as a loving-caring friend who loved God and His Word. She loved sharing its truths especially during her serving as a teacher in searching out the guidance it offers. God bless the family in this temporary time of grief as we look forward to meeting again in heaven.
