“ I am so sorry that my husband and I couldn't make it to the Receiving because of the weather. I have loved Becky since she was a little girl but lost touch after she married. She looks like her Momma Jo and her personality was always like her also. Jo and I did a lot of things with the children and youth at First Baptist Church where they were members. Also, I have a daughter, Susan, who is the same age as Becky. Becky asked me to design a Yellow Jacket for her to embroider on her Drum Major uniform and I was honored to do so. She represented her school beautifully. She never liked being an only child and said that when she married she was going to have a dozen kids. She almost made it and I'm sure she loved each of them and was a fantastic mother. But, I guess she did make it a dozen plus counting Charles' children. Our prayers and sympathies are with her children, especially Shaylyn, and her husband, Charles. Ever since she moved back to Kingston, I was always going to visit her but . . . I'm old enough to know not to put off letting people know that you love them. Louise and Larry Brabham

“ During my high school years Becky Bolick was the little girl who lived next door to us. My family just adored her, with those beautiful red curls, precocious smile and mischievous eyes. She was so sweet, and I missed her when she moved away. I was so saddened to see that she has passed now, and send my deepest condolences to her family. In looking at the photos here of her life and all the children and loved ones around her it made my heart glad for the beautiful love she was surrounded by in her life. I hope her family can find comfort in those memories they made together and in the joy they gave her in her life.
