“ So sorry to hear about Rhonda such a shock. When I was growing up I visited Rhonda and her family every summer. My Grandma lived right across the street from her family she was my first cousin. My two brothers and myself cud not wait to get out of the car to see her and her two brothers. We always had so much fun riding horses and visiting my Grandma's store! Those will always be great memories I will always cherish forever. RIP my dear sweet cuz may God bless your loving family and give them strength now and the days to come.

“ This is so heartbreaking. Always smiling except when I played ball against her in high school. She was a fireball. Last time we spoke was at Parkwest when we both had a parent there for tests. We spoke of our parents’ spunky nature and determination. She inherited that spunk. I am so glad I knew Rhonda. I am so sorry for your family and our community’s loss.
