“ My "Great" Uncle....what a phenomenal title for a genuinely loving man. I remember so many of the lessons, both he and Aunt Nina, instilled in me growing up. 1. After the Lord, Family comes first and you love them with all you are 2. Honesty is the only answer 3. Eye Contact lets them know you mean it 4. A Firm Handshake is more binding than any ink ever made 5. A good joke/prank never gets old Heaven definitely gained a stellar angel. Can't wait to see him again.

“ Dear Family,
Was so very sorry to hear of Richard's passing. Your Dad and Mom were very precious. We had lots of fun and have lots of good memories when they were dating, and we were running around being annoying to them at Grandma Nunley's house. Those were very special times.
Sorry we won't be able to be there for the services.
We love you all and are praying for God to give you peace and comfort through all this trying time. Be strong, and be there for each other.

He was a very good friend. And a hard working man. Learned me a lot about gardening. I will never forget you.

“ I love the whole family!!! They are the best. Richard was a second father to me. He was a strong, honest, GOD fearing man who never met a stranger. Heaven has gained a true angel.

“ Uncle Richard was like my other daddy growing up, he encouraged me and directed me with love and affection. As an adult he showed me love and respect. I enjoyed visiting and reminiscing with him, he will be greatly missed. My prayers are with the family and I am so sorry for your loss. The world was a much better place with Richard Newman in it. May God grant you peace and comfort in this difficult time. Love you guys, Nadine

“ Richard was one of my daddy's best friends. They fished together and for a long time went to Knoxville every week for Seilers. I remember us coming to their house and them playing cards. God bless all of you
