“ *Heather, the boys & family,
I just stumbled upon this news online. I am so shocked & saddened.
I was in the class ahead of Rick at Washington University anesthesia. Rick was a great student & an amazing anesthetist!
He used to call me for advice & I'd say "Dude you are so much better than I am, you need to give me advice!"
We lost touch many years ago. One of my classmates ran into Rick & Heather on an anesthesia cruise years ago. She caught me up on the latest & we thought we should all do a conference together.
Busy lives & time passes... now I'm heartbroken that we never got that done. I will pass this on to Claudia (CRNA on the cruise) &
Nancy (another from my class that knew Rick).
Prayers, hugs & love to the Henderson's!

“ There are so many wonderful memories I could share about Rick that it is too hard to choose just one. So what I will say, I'll say to the family and it is something someone told me at a very difficult and sad time; grief is just a journey, not a destination. When we get to where we are going we will see our loved ones again. I have never forgotten that and I hope it will give you some peace. Rick was a gift from God and we were so lucky He saw fit to share him with us for the time we had him. Our true blessing comes from being able to always treasure loving and being loved by him. Until we meet again my friend. I shall miss you always.

“ Rick was larger than life! Rick was a smart, kind, generous and humble man. If you every had the privilege of meeting Rick it changed you. We were better people because of him. He showed everyone kindness and compassion. He led his life to give and to inspire. I worked with Rick for over 20 years. He would make you laugh, console you and inspire you to be better. He instilled comfort and peace when you were with him in a difficult situation. He earned the trust and respect of those that work with him. He was far more than someone you worked with, he was a friend! He was one of the rare people that touch everyone that knew him. He made everyone feel at ease around.d him. He had this infectious smile that brought joy to your heart. He loved unconditionally! Heather and the boys gave him that same joy. Just the mention of them brought that smile to his face. Rick will be missed and it will never be the same without him. Heaven has gained an angel! I know he will be smiling down on us. I know that I could never give back to Rick all that he has done for me or my family but I want to honor him and his family. I pray for their peace and comfort. I will miss you my friend. Rest in peace, your journey left a legacy that inspired and humbled people.Love and prayers to the family and all that had the honor to call Rick their friend! Andrea, Greg, Tanner and Tyler Henry.

“ When I think of Rick several things/words come to my mind. Precious, Rick was a precious man. An unusual word to use for a man by another man but it's the truth. A Mahatma, a great soul. Rick was a great soul. Selfless, Rick denied himself to serve others on so many occasions they cannot be recounted. Friend, Rick was the best of friends and loved at all times. Brother, Rick was a brother born for adversity. He helped everyone he could in their adversity. Loving family man. Rick loved his family above all else. Big Teddy Bear - Rick was definitely that to all who knew him. He will live in my heart all the days of my life. My condolences to Heather, Chris, Nathan, Jake, Hope, and Anna, and all of Rick's family in your loss.

And I can't forget when he took some of my co-workers out to celebrate after I got my BSN. He was like my big brother to me. He was a great person to work with!!! He will be missed by so many.

“ Rick was such a selfless, generous, kind hearted, bigger than life kind of guy. He gave without hesitation to those in need. He was a guy that dropped everything for his family, friends and colleagues. He was always a giver and never a taker. Rick left a legacy for those that knew him. He let his light shine through his kindness and his big smile. He was a blessing to so many people and will forever be missed. Until we meet again; RIP my dear sweet friend!

“ I met Rick when I first started working at SHA. He was such a kind soul. If I'd see him in the elevator early in the morning and could tell he was tired, he still always had a smile and would ask how I was. He took care of my mother for a procedure. She had dementia and was scared and confused. The care he gave to her and the exceptional kindness he showed will remain with me all my days. When I thanked him with tears for being so kind he said " That's one of the privileges of being part of the SHA family." I would have trusted this gentleman with anyone my heart holds dear. Our SHA family will certainly miss him. Prayers for the family and close friends who are hurting. May God carry you through your grief.

“ I met Rick when he was my son's baseball coach. I knew his sons because they were my sons ages but didn't know their dad until he coached my son. He had such a great attitude and I loved that he treated every child the same no matter how good or not so good that they were. He just had a special way with people and I was blessed to have known him. I work at high school and have had the privilege of watching all but one of his kids come through school so far. Riley is there now and Caleb yet to come and they are a great bunch of kids. My heart goes out to all of you and my prayers also. He loved y'all so much and he was so proud of you

Rick was known as the gentle giant at Physicians Surgery Center. I had the privilege of working with him during My time there. He was great with kids but my wife thought that he hung The moon. He put her to sleep for a procedure and calmed her. If I had to Rate The People that I worked with he would have been in the top position. RIP my friend I will see you again. My prayers are With the family as I know Rick is with God.

He could see that I was a brand new nurse and terrified. He took me with him to ICU and explained everything that was going on and why he was doing a what he was doing with the patient. He was a great teacher and loved teaching the new nurses. Rick was a great man. He will be missed by many.*

“ I met Rick over 20 years ago while at Sweetwater Hospital having a procedure. He was the guy that was going to put me under and I was an absolute nervous wreck. He sat down beside my bed and reached and got my hand. He explained everything that he was going to do and assured me that he would not leave my side until I was awake and in recovery. This was the first time I had ever met him and he was that concerned for my fears! From that point on, through any procedure and especially the births of two of my children he was there. He told me on occasion that he was off, but that he had seen my name on the list and knew he needed to be there because he knew how scared I would be and knew what I would need to hear.

Rick was the epitome of what a person should be in this life. He was kind, compassionate and loving to all souls - no matter who they were. He had the bedside manner of a saint. I became one of his biggest fans the first time he took care of me and I will always cherish the blessing of his friendship that I was fortunate enough to acquire over the years.

May you rest in peace my friend. Thank you for taking care of me all these years - for calming my fears, preserving my sanity and for watching over me. You sir were a blessing in my life and I will sure miss running into you and catching up!

My thoughts and prayers go out to his precious wife Heather and his children and grandchildren. May God wrap his arms around those that loved you and those that heart feels the void of you now. May those that love you always be reminded of precious memories of you.
