“ we were buddies in 7th grade and hung out that summer. and used to hang out behind a store behind where he lived and we used to sit on a 10 ft wall and talk about things Bob didn't have friends really maybe because he was a little heavy. but i liked him alot! he had a whole lot of personality that was magnetic. I think in jr high nobody bothered to get to know him i guess,, But i though this guy was great. and he was a talker. he didnt have a bed and slept on a floor with a mattress His Mom was a artist i remember. i never thought bad about anything Gloria kept him fed, clothed. and even though she lived barely if not in poverty. I always respected there life. they were genuinely happy! and i never looked down on anybody. I wish I coulda known him in adult life. i did run into him when i was 20 yrs old once but for some reason we didnt connect. I believe we were both in a hurry! well!!! BOB BUFTON!! A happy friggin guy. I'd spend a summer with him again if i had the choice to do that summer over again! may the good lord be with you buddy! Bob

“ My memories of Bob have and will forever be in my heart. To say I have a favorite is impossible because of the constant laughter and love that was always around him. I could not pick just one!
