“ I can hear Bob saying.."Peach", come over and sit a spell". I can see him getting out his nightly "fiber" of cereal.....and just our visits. He would always ask questions to get me to thinking, questions about politics or the Bible and we would talk. I remember walking with him when he had his dog, Bo, we would go over to the golf course. Or we would relax on the carport and it would be so relaxing with Ann and Paula. Great Days. So now, he and my dad are hanging out, back together. I hope they will be cheering for us as we are left here on this Earth a while longer as we miss them so. May we make them proud. Thinking of you all, Ann, Paula, and Gwen!

“ I can't remember a time when I didn't know Mr. Margrave. Of course we saw him at church, but we also called him "the medicine man" when we were little, because he was our pharmacist. He always had a kind word and a smile. What a good man he was. He will be missed. Mrs. Margrave, Paula & Gwen, you have our sympathy & prayers.
