“ We regret the loss of such a wonderful man who was a very great friend mine and Terra's. He will be sadly missed by his family and loved ones but will be an inspiration to be in God's presence. We are far from Kingston now and are sorry for not being able to be there to express our heart filled sympathy. May God look over you, your family and relieve the burden of loss with inspiring memories of happiness and love you shared with Ron.

“ Sharon. Ron was a good man and a pleasure to work around. I know he fought a courageous battle, having kept tabs on him through the Bull Run Breakfasts. His spirit and wit will be dearly missed even though we know he is in the loving arms of God. Trust the Lord and His plan and know that we will see Ron again! Our prayers are with the whole family!
