“ I was hoping that Ronnie would make our 50th high school class reunion next year that our classmates are planning now, so I could share our memories that we experienced while we were in high school. Those times were the best. We all will miss seeing and talking to him. Prayers to your family.

“ Going to miss twinning, playing cards, hearing of all the fun adventures, and living life with this incredible man. He let me be playful, taught me so much and was the best father-in-law. Rest in peace until I see you again. I love you.
