“ Rose is one of my dearest friends. The sadness of her leaving is more than I have words to express. My world will not be the same without her in it.
My condolences to her husband, Andy, her children MJ, Daniel and Sam, her family and friends. Condolence is such a small word to those who have lost their anchor and foundation.

“ I had the pleasure of knowing Rose while she was in Scenic City Chorus. She loved music and had a beautiful voice. She was a beautiful person inside and out. Saturday she helped me with a cut and paste problem I had in Facebook and I find it difficult to believe she has moved on from all of us. My prayers are with her husband Andy and her children. She always expressed her love for all of them. She will be missed by all.
