“ My condolences to the Inman family. My fondest memories are from the Presbyterian camp in Charleston. We could always depend on Mr. Inman to gather the campers with his bull horn. He wa so loud, the entire town hear him. 😊 He was a nice man but firm as well. RIP Mr. Inman. Sincerely, Renee' Law Musgrove

“ So regret that Elaine and I are away and cannot be present to celebrate the life and service of Elder Riy Inman. He was a faithful servant of God. I so appreciated his friendship and valued all that he did.

May the Lord bless the family and may the memories that you have strengthen you and bring you joy in your sorrow.

“ Dear Bert, Traci, Rachel and Percy,
Our beloved Roy could tell a story with that big smile and infectious laugh that nobody I know could match. As my brother commented and I believe he was a "unique man of God" and "he touched everyone he ever met," including my twin and me. We loved to rabbit hunt with Roy! I remember one day as we were heading out from the Inman home to rabbit hunt, Bert said sternly to Roy, "Don't you walk them boys to death!" He could walk and hunt all day in his prime! He never stopped doing good things and being helpful to others! I will miss him dearly:(

“ So very sorry for your loss. It was an honor to have worked with Roy in the lab. He was always pulling us aside and teaching us not to get mad but do better. We had fun in the lab when he worked with us. He will be greatly missed by all.

“ Dear Bert & family

My brother Harold just called me to inform me of Roys homecoming. I cry and smile. The earthly loss of a unique man of God who could share stories of his life and listened as well. I met Roy when he came to work with us at Sequoyah Chemistry. He introduced me to Louis L'Amour books "The Sackets" , our love of rabbit hunting, our love of our lord, his dedication to God, family, church, work, and country. I know he touched everyone he ever met-truly will be missed till we meet again. Tammy & I will be praying for peace & comfort only God can give. PS my favorite story Roy told: While out at a remote environmental site where he was collecting samples, a group of hoodlums threatened him. He noticed the one doing all talking and just pointed his finger inside his jacket at him saying While my mom is crying over me, your mom will be crying over you! They all stood down! That was Roy-I know a lot are crying over him now but smiling -He is in presence of the Lord JESUS.
