“ Lynn, Matt, and Theresa-- We were so sorry to hear of Roy's passing. Thank God for the memories that you have from the last few months. May God bring those to your minds and give you comfort that he's "just asleep" and one day soon, his body with ours will be gloriously raised up where we will be with our Savior forever more! Hang on to that! And know that there are people in Pontiac who love you all and are praying for you and your family. May God keep you and bless you and give you the comfort and peace you desire! We love you Lynn!

“ *You are in my prayers. May God be with you, giving you love and strength. May He also guide your walk, with the knowledge that Roy is in a better place now. Though this is a hard time, may you know that Our Father in Heaven is with you and Roy, even when you are separated. Please let me know if there is ANYTHING that you need.
In Christ's Love,

“ *Mona,
There are no words that can help right now. So, just know that you are being prayed for and Roy is being held (tightly) by the Savoir.

“ *Mona,
I am so sorry to hear of Roy's passing. You are in my thoughts and prayers at this difficult time. I pray for you to have strength you need to get you through this difficult time.
I too have lost a spouse and know that what you are going through right now is probably the most difficult thing you will experience in your lifetime. Remember, he is not gone, he lives in your memories.

On behalf of the Global Authoring System project team our hearts and prayers are with you at this difficult time.
On a personal note I am so sorry for your loss. I'm glad Roy and Mona were able to take this trip to visit family in Florida, that they were able to renew their vows this past August and attend a family reunion in July. Although this past year has not been an easy one, Roy put up a valiant fight and made the most of the time he had with his family and friends. His strength and love will live through and with you forever. Please know that all of your friends are here and let us know if we can do anything to help ease the burden.
