“ Mamaw, you were more than a mamaw to me you were my best friend...I can recall how there was many times when I would sit down and talk to you about what was going on I'm my life and you always gave me straight and truthful guidance and you listened to whatever was on my mind I remember when some things you would say I told you that you sounded just like my dad things we would talk about you would keep between me and you. You have given me the best dad any kid could want and your are my blessing I love you so much mamaw now you go rest high on that mountain 🙏. Love you forever and always... your granddaughter ❤️💜
