“ *I am sorry to hear of Mrs. Hendrickson passing. I met your mother when I was a volunteer and substitute teacher at Central Elementary many years ago and I enjoyed knowing her. We are so sorry about your grandmother. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Your whole class is thinking of you at this time!
We are saddened by your loss. I remember meeting your grandmother at a football game. She seemed very special.
Take care and know that we are with you even in the tough times.
Grandmothers are very near and dear to our hearts. I know you have a lot of fond memories of her. Even though she's gone, a part of her will always be with you!

“ LeeAnn and Angie
We are so sorry to hear about your mother. Know that you and your families are in our thoughts and prayers.
She was such a special lady and always had a way of making you laugh. I remember her giving Josh and Allison such a hard time when they liked each other in daycare.
May God's loving arms hold you close and His love provide you with comfort and peace during your loss.
