“ I loved her as a friend on Facebook. She was always kind and helpful. We used to play Words With Friends on Facebook and she loved you all so much, I miss her already, I wish I could do or say something that would help you all.

“ Dee turned out to be the Aunt I never met until 2yrs ago, besides her friendship she gave me the greatest gift, my cousin Curtis. See I will miss you, but knowing your with Jesus takes the sting away.
Love you,

“ I met Dee in Yahoo groups many years ago. We bonded and became close through the years. She is my Sister in Christ and I miss her something awful. True friendship. I could call her and talk about anything, even if we hadn't talked in months. She was such a witness for Christ.

“ I remember how sweet you were. One time at Christmas we all went out to eat and to the mall. I found a beautiful figurine of an angel and a snow man . I could get it so a little later she'll be back in a minute. She bought that figurine and gave it to me. She was so sweet.

We became good friends I talked to you Thursday morning I had to go to doctor in Knoxville I keep thinking about you being sick so I got you some power aid I called you that I was there to give you it you said put it on the porch in the chair I don't want you to get this again so I knocked on the door you came opened the door we waived at each other that was the last time I saw you. “ I will always love and remember you ! We became very close when at the villa and were like sisters.
In fact I remember a time that we were in school and one of us got a reprimand from I believe it was the principal and I think it was Dee that said that's not me that's my sister so he come to me and I said no that's not me it was my sister we pretended that we were twins and we actually got people to believe it and we got out of getting in trouble because they didn't know which one to yell at .
I will never forget that along with a lot of other things that we shared together.
We promised each other that we would get old in the nursing home and have wheel chair races and not go to the great beyond without each other I'm going to miss you I love you!
