

Sandra Jean Young

March 18, 1940 - February 26, 2007

Sandra Jean Young

March 18, 1940 - February 26, 2007

Sandra Young of Kingston passed away suddenly on February 26, 2007 at Methodist Medical Center, Oak Ridge, Tennessee.

Sandy was a faithful member of First Baptist Church, Kingston. She was affectionately known as the 'card minister' of the BRB Sunday School Class. She was a devoted and loving wife to Gordon.

Sandy was preceded in death by first husband Steven Skinner. Her parents, Gerald and Marjorie Robinson also preceded her in death, as did her brother, Howard Robinson.

Sandy was a devoted and loving wife to Gordon Young. She is survived by her children: Scott Skinner of Milwaukee, Wisconsin; Troy Skinner and wife Sheryl of Lindenhurst, Illinois; Tammy Polakowski and husband David of Aurora, Illinois, and step-daughter Connie LaPontie and husband Paul of Kingsford, Michigan.

Sandy's three grandchildren also survive: Troy Skinner, Junior and Gracie Skinner of Lindenhurst, Illinois and Allison Polakowski of Aurora, Illinois.

A farewell tribute was held on February 28, 2007 at Kyker Funeral Home Chapel. Officiants were Dr. Roy Graves and Jack H. McPherson, Jr.

Funeral services in Wheaton, Illinois will be at Williams Camp Funeral Home on Friday, March 2, 2007 with internment in River Hills Memorial Park, Batavia, Illinois.

The family requests donations to be made to the National Parkinson Foundation at www.parkinson.org.