“ Scotty was a true friend to the Gallaher family. I remember when we would all get together on Sunday afternoons and play football at Lawnville Church. The Gallaher's, the Bain's, the Harper's, the Bolden's were all like brothers that loved and cared for each other whether playing sports, fishing, or hunting or just socializing together. We will miss Scotty but we will be reunited in Heaven some day. God, just, called another Christian home before us. Praise God that Scotty was ready to meet his Lord and Savior. He is suffering no more. He is walking the Streets of Glory forever and forever. Praise the Lord. Amen

“ Scotty had the brightest smile and the most joyous laugh. It will be sad not to see and hear that laugh again. I pray your family finds comfort in knowing that he is in a better place with no pain and suffering. He will most certainly be missed.
