“ Today is January 11, 2025. Yesterday I was looking through Facebook Post and came across a Post and in the friend's section Shelbia was listed as a friend. I clicked Shelbia's picture and began to scroll through her post. I soon saw an obituary for Shelbia. I met Shelbia at a Sunday afternoon gathering in a friend's front yard back in May 1972. I found her to be a very humorous person and she, I would think has always been a person of humor. I don't remember her passing but I tried to send her a Christmas card at TSBC mailbox in the past, but I mailed one to her address where she lived before passing in December 2024 not remembering her passing. Shelbia may be gone, but she is not forgotten. Precious memories are great to have of favorite friends. Love! Howard

“ I was looking for a church back 3 years ago ..... I went for a walk one day and saw a beautiful Lady watering flowers at Trenton Street Baptist Church in the front side.... she asked a few questions and smiling ..Shelbia invited me to attend... and after a few months there I joined the church and we were friends .... I am praying for her family and friends that all. Knew her....Kim “ Mona and Bryan please know that all of you are in my thoughts and prayers. I loved both your mom and dad. Had it not been for TSBC and all the families I met during my time at church, I would have probably not made it to be 18. Your mom always had a smile and sometimes a friendly laugh for me. Her eyes always seemed to have a twinkle in them. Praises are being sung in heaven.
