“ Sherry was more than just a cousin and a member of our family she was a best friend for life. She was someone you could call and vent too, laugh with and keep her updated about her Family in SC and same with her about her family in Tennessee. I'm am thankful we remained close and I made that last trip to Tennessee to spend time together. You are forever loved and will surely be missed by those who have grown to love you and know you. Go rest high on that mountain and celebrate with those waiting to greet you home. I love you ❤️ cuz.
