

Sophie Vass Simon

April 21, 1921 - December 20, 2015

Sophie Vass Simon died peacefully on December 20, 2015. She was preceded in death by her husband of 58 years Hugh Vernon Simon. She is survived by her son Hugh V. Simon, Jr (wife Marlinda), of Buenos Aires, Argentina; and her daughter Celia F. Simon (husband Richard K. Evans) of Kingston; grandson Simon A. Barrett (wife Kristen D. Barrett) of Knoxville; granddaughter Jennifer Barrett (daughter Skylar Pile), of Nashville; granddaughter Amy Evans Rourke (husband Chris Rourke) of Knoxville; granddaughter Ellen Evans Kellogg (husband Matthew Kellogg) of Knoxville; granddaughter Andrea Simon Heckel (husband Matt) of Alexandria, VA; grandson Chris Simon (wife Tyree) of Atlanta, GA; six great grandchildren

Sophie Simon was a life-long Presbyterian, growing up in Chattanooga, TN, in the home of a Presbyterian minister. She graduated from Peace Junior College and the University of Tennessee in 1943 with a degree in Home Economics. She married Hugh Simon during World War II, after which he became a Presbyterian minister. Sophie performed as “assistant minister” during her husband’s entire career. She loved children, and she taught 3-year-old Sunday School classes for 40 years. She was dedicated to helping people and spent much energy and time doing so. Her family fondly remembers her loving care and her strong will and determination.

Memorial service 2pm Saturday January 2, 2016 at the Bethel Presbyterian Church with Rev. Wendy Neff officiating.
