“ I had the privilege of calling Steve my brother in law for over 30 years. A true friend, free spirit , and a man with a kind and loving soul. Let me tell you how Tennessee came to be a part of him. When we were young men, strong, fearless, and living life to the fullest, I took Bo on a road trip with me. Now this was a working trip because I drove Semi for a moving company and Bo was my partner for a couple of weeks. So essentially we were getting paid to enjoy America, but work really hard as well. We're driving down I-40 and crossing the Tennessee river for the first time. Absolutely stunning. Suddenly Bo turns to me, all excited, and says STOP right now! So here I go bringing my unit to a dead stop on the side of the interstate. He says to me, Steve," I gotta go down there and look around. " Go ahead to the truckstop and I'll hitch a ride there later. Which he did. I never questioned his motives or his passion. I always embraced them. He fell in love with the Tennessee river, and I would imagine, Tennessee as well. It seems like it was already a part of him. He could make you feel that way, as well. You will be missed my friend by all whose lives you have touched. With love, Steve.

“ I have so many memories with Bo, so much of our lives growing up were shared, that's what happens when your cousins live two doors down; I wouldn't trade it for anything. My fondest memory though is of the last time I saw him, it was then I found out how much he treasured his Salvation, how much Jesus has changed his life. I could hear it in his conversation, I could see it in his eyes, and I know that I will see him again; my prayer is that the whole family will make that choice. Prayers of comfort and love for you all.
