

Susie B. Rose

May 24, 1922 - October 12, 2015

Susie B. Rose passed away on October 12, 2015 at Mount Saint Francis Nursing Facility in Colorado Springs, Colorado. Susie was born in Harriman, TN on May 24, 1922. She lived and attended school in South Harriman during her childhood. She worked at Oak ridge Labs (on the first atomic bomb) until 1945 at which time she and her husband Clarence Rose moved to Dayton, Ohio. In Dayton, she was employed at DELCO Products for 30 years and upon retiring she and Clarence returned to live in the Crestwood neighborhood of Kingston, TN.

Susie was a long time member of Cedar Grove Baptist Church. She was an accomplished quilt maker and provided her four children and many grandchildren with beautiful works of art that she created. She and her husband celebrated 59 years of marriage before Clarence's passing in 2001. Susie moved to Colorado several years ago to be closer to her daughter.

Susie is survived by her four children and their spouses, Calvin (Joy) , Michael (Diana), Patricia (John) Nichols and David (Diane). She has two sisters, Ruby Inman and Ellen Daniels and a brother Stanley Butler who are all long time residents of Harriman, TN. In addition, she is survived by 10 beautiful grandchildren and 9 beautiful great grandchildren.
