“ Dear Kathy,
When I saw that Tammy had passed I knew I had to let you know that I have never forgotten you or her, even though it's been many many years since we have seen each other. As a young girl I spent many hours playing at your house in Eureka, I just climbed the hill to see you guys. My heart aches for you as you go forward...I know you loved your sister very much. I regret that we never got together as adults.
