“ Junior was loved by so many. He had a heart of gold. They just don't make em' like junior any more. He was just like a dad or papaw to me . We spoke daily n visited daily. Junior always had a smile on his face and a a funny story or fish tale to share. He enjoyed eating breakfast at local stores with his friends and supper with me.. I know he always lifted everyone mood and mellowed out any thing with his laugh.. it's hard daily missing him so much. But he was a true Christian man n I know he is in heaven.. .

Junior was a fine Christian man, and a friend to all; he will be greatly missed. I've known since early childhood. I'm sure his reward will be GREAT.
