“ I am so glad that Ted, Steve, and John were able to spend some time together in their retirement years. They had such a good time telling stories and laughing, Ted was the chef of the group and would sometimes bring good sandwich fixings with him to prepare lunch for his brothers. Otherwise they enjoyed time at the lunch counter at Jefferson Drugs.

We are thankful for Ted's life. We will remember his great sense of humor, his strong opinions freely shared, and his generosity to others. He loved his family and his church. Ted, you will be missed by many. Joy Arehart
