

Terry Lee Gordon

October 1, 1958 - February 21, 2021

Terry Gordon, age 62 of Midway, peacefully went home to be with Jesus February 21, 2021.

Terry is survived by his parents Brad and Sylvia Gordon, his children, Shane Gordon (Chelsey Witt Gordon), and Clorissa Verschueren (Scott Verschueren), 3 grandchildren, who thought their Pop Pop hung the moon, Seth Gordon, Grelyn Gordon, and Cambry Gordon, his three sisters Missy Richardson (Billy Richardson), Cindy Fielden (David Fielden), and Tammy Narramore.

He worked most of his adult life at Boeing and Y12. He was a skilled tradesman. Terry's passion for sports shined throughout his life. He coached football for many years at Midway High School. It was very important to him to instill lifelong skills in each high school athlete that he coached. He enjoyed attending his grandchildren's ball games and loved to critique and encourage them. Terry also enjoyed the outdoors. He spent most of his free time on the golf course or on Watts Bar Lake.

“ Terry was a very special guy with a great personality and a wonderful, sweet smile! We had some great times growing together at Midway!

To his family, I'm so sorry to hear of this sad news! Just way too soon to be saying goodbye, but we will be seeing him again in heaven. My thoughts and prayers have been and will be for all of the family.
