“ I first met Tom while working at Palmer Mercedes in Long Beach California around the mid 70's. Tom was a mechanic and I worked in the parts department. Tom and I became good friends. Tom was a good friend to me and my wife Victoria and our two children, Tim and Sarah. Tom id not live to far from us in Long Beach. Tom lived by himself and with his dog "Honker". Tom liked riding his Harley Davidson. Tom was a good friend.I Remember when Tom went to work with his friend Bill in the nuclear field. Tom and I kept in touch until he moved to Tennessee. After my wife and I divorced I kind of lost touch with Tom. Tom is two months older than my older brother Thom. I just found out about a month ago Tom has passed. I was on the internet trying to find Tom when I saw his Obituary. When Tom and I worked together he went by TC. I remember when I asked him about his middle name. It took about a year before Tom wouldn't tell me what the "C" in his name was. But he finally told me it was "Crispin". I got to meet Tom's mom and dad once when they came to visit Tom in California. I can't tell you how sad I was when I found out Tom was gone. Tom was good people, and I liked hanging out with Tom. I do miss you my friend.

“ I, Lynne, only found out of Tom's passing the end of June, by then he'd been gone since end of Easter week. I hadn't heard back from him and called. Nothing. I went to his local paper in TN to find his obituary. Imagine my shock and disbelief. I fell apart. I met "Snow", Tom, in 1973. He was my 1st love and my forever love and protector. I loved everything about him...Laugh, blue eyes..everything. I will never hear that voice again except in my dreams where I see him. Rest in peace my sweet Snow, know I've always loved you as you told me as well. I've always been proud of you and you knew that. Such great memories. God rest your soul sweetheart. Xx loving you always in my heart, Lynne

“ There really just aren't enough words for what this man meant to me... He was first and foremost my protector. I was quite simply his little girl. Even when I was grown I was still his little girl. He stepped in and raised me not because he had to but because he wanted to. He taught me to be independent, strong willed, loyal, self reliant, and a tab stubborn (just like him). I'm going to miss his stories, advice, and ability to infuse humor and bluntness into any situation. He would call a spade a spade and was fiercely protective as any dad would be. It was an honor to call you dad and to be called your daughter. Love you more than I could ever express. I'm going to miss most knowing you were only ever a phone call away, ready to chase my bad day away, share your insight and wisdom, and tell a story or two guaranteed to make me laugh.

“ I Kim Gori Parks met Tom in 1985 - 2000. We had a wonderful life. He raised all three children, a girl, Rachael Gori Falls, a boy, V.J. Gori, and Matthew Gori. He was strict but consistent. He loved me, the kids, and Grandchildren, Christopher Falls, Ethan Falls, and Dylan Gori.. He loved them so much and taught them everything they know, we went camping, we moved numerous times, and he loved to eat my lasagna. I would make it for him every year. He would always come to the house when the children were here and play with the grand children. He loved us all so much. We miss him so much. He would not hungry when he came here. Which was very much often. In fact we stayed very close even after we split up. My husband and Tom rode Harleys together and shopped often at the gun shows. That was his tru love was family, motorcycles, and his pigeons. He was very competitive and wanted to always win the races with those birds he raised, trained and flown. So many memories!

“ Tom is my step-dad, but the only real father I can remember. He taught me how to be a man and how take care of myself. He never let me feel like I wasn't his real son and the lessons he taught me growing up allow for me to be the man that I am today. He will forever be loved and missed.
