“ The passing of Aunt Vadna was a dark day for me. As a young boy growing up in the hills of E. Tennessee, I always looked forward to spending time with uncle R.H. and Aunt Vadna. Our home was back in the hills and hollows of Scott Co. It was a real change of pace to spend time in Harriman. Paved streets, running water and indoor plumbing. Not to mention going to movies and just riding around in the car-all over Harriman. Everyone knew Uncle R.H. We would stop at the local garage or any place for that matter and be greeted with a great hello or have someone throw up their hand when they would see his car. I don't recall aunt Vadna ever being upset when we would come down for a visit. She fed us and always seemed to enjoy our company. I will always cherish those memories and hear her familiar laugh.

“ *Linda and Family,
I was sorry to read about your mother's death. I did not know about it until I saw the obituary. Carter Street has lost a good neighbor. She was always friendly and nice when I talked to her. I am remembering your family in my prayers. God bless each one.*
