“ Valerie... We had some fun times when we were kids. There used to be an old home movie of us singing and dancing to Buddy's Monkees album. I would always point to you when Davy Jones sang, "I love my Vaaaalllleri!" Remember floating around in the little pool in your back yard, playing with Pierre, sticking our feet in the creek, and spotting lightning bugs at dusk? We drank slurpees in Annie's kitchen at night and ate Pringles potato chips while we watched cartoons on Saturday mornings. Thank you for the wonderful phone conversation we had earlier this year--telling jokes, exchanging old family stories, and laughing our butts off. You and all of those precious memories will live on in my heart. I love you, little cousin. Lana
