“ To: Sandra Sheets

*Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone will stay that way,
I found that peace at close of day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I, too, will miss
But not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life has been full, I've savoured much.
Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all to brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief,
Lift up you hearts and share with me,
God wanted me now,
He set me free*

Sandra my thoughts and prayers or with you and your family, your mother made me laugh so many times felt like i had known her all my life may GOD bless you and keep you in his everlasting arms.

“ I am so sorry at Aunt Toppie's passing. I regret not being able to be around my family in Bazeltown more. NOTHING can take the place of family. I know that better than a lot of people. But I love every one of you so much, and appreciate being a part of the family. Aunt Toppie will be missed a lot and I was proud to know her and call her family. May God in all His mercy be with all the other family members and strengthen and comfort and keep you is my prayer. Much love, Sheila and all the Coopers.

“ There was never a dull moment when I was around this woman. If she liked you, she let you know. If she didn't like you, well she let you know that as well. I remember I was at Wayne and Ann's house and I was pregnant. My husband Kevin and I were on the couch and Toppie sat on the other side of Kevin and put her feet in his lap and told him to rub them, well he did so for a few minutes and he made to get up and she said, " Did I tell you to stop or get up" well he just slid on back down and kept on rubbing.. She got her bluff on him good.. I can't believe she is gone, but I know she is in a better place and I know she is smiling down upon all us. May God be with all the family members and hold them tight in these heart wrenching moments. Please give them strength Father to make it past this and may it bring them all together as a family and strengthen them.
