

Velma Anstadt Stief

April 6, 1921 - June 10, 2005

Velma Anstadt Stief age 84 of Kingston died Friday June 10, 2005 at the Roane Medical Center in Harriman. Velma was valedictorian of Montgomery High School in Montgomery, PA. She graduated from Penn State University. Velma attended and was a founding member of Grace Luthern Church in Oak Ridge, Tennessee. She had also been a member of the Home Demonstration Club in Kingston. Her hobbies were wild flowers and crafts. She truly enjoyed sharing her crafts with children at Christmas time. She was very compassionate and caring person, who cared very deeply for her family. She will be greatly missed. She was preceded in death by husband Stanley Stief, parents Hurd and Thelma Anstadt, brothers Vern and Darrell Anstadt. Survivors include sister Nedra Johnston, brother Jay Anstadt, daughter Sherry Barrow, son David Stief, Granddaughters Elizabeth Oshaughnessy, Caroline Stief, and Tanya Davis. Great grandchildren Megan Davis, Mackenzi Davis, Linus Valenzuela, and Madeline Valenzuela. Graveside 11am Wednesday at the Oak Ridge Memorial Park with the Rev. David Craig officiating. The family request in lieu of flowers donations made in memory of Velma to the Alzheimers Foundation of America www.alzfdn.org or 1-866-232-8484. There will be a gathering of friends at the Barrow house after the funeral service. Kyker Funeral Home in Kingston is in charge of arrangements.